THE FOLLOWING IS A COPY OF A LETTER SENT TO MR. RONALD WEBSTER BY CANON C.R.G. CARLETON. Dated Sept. 16th, 1969.

Dear Ronald .

I have been Rector of Anguilla for the last five years, and now after five months of leave, I have decided that I should not return to Anguilla for another tour.

I have been offered other work in the Caribbean, and so propose to return to Anguilla for a few daysonly at the beginning of October, to pack up, and to resign to pack up, and to resign.

I am glad that I was able to serve Anguilla, especially in the last two critical years, and feel that the future of Anguilla must now be decided by Anguillans alone.

I will continue to pray for you all in Anguilla, that the justice of your cause may be recognised, that there may be a speedy settlement, and that Anguillans may be allowed to control their destiny in wisdom and peace and happiness.

Yours sincerely, Guy Carleton.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Mr. Editor,

Could you kindly insert this letter in your issue of THE BEACON for Saturday 20th September? I have read a letter in THE BEACON for Sept. 13th, entitled "Happenings in Anguilla", I must say that I am rather concerned and embarassed over the contents of that letter. Let me say here too that there was a similar letter issued sometime in July.

I call it utter ignorance and impertinence of the writer to be deg grading the Doctor and Dentist in that manner. Years ago for example, Penicilin and other Medications could only be administered by injections. Today, as modern science would have it, these same medications can be given in tablet suspension form. Everyone is aware that injections are painful, so why cause pain when the treatment can be given otherwise? There's nothing wrong in giving tablets when necessary! Doctors the World over are doing it. And as regards to death, all the professional doctors or medica tions cannot prevent it when the time comes. Here is a very talented and energetic doctor who is very interested in raising the standards of health, and in attaining a general improvement on the medical field here in Anguilla. Why not give him a chance? Everything needs time, money and co-operation in order t be completed. When these persons are forced to leave the island be cause of puringratitude to them, it is we who will suffer. We will have no one to give us even a "Pill to save our lives. These are not the days when people will be pushed 18th around and be satisfied!

I am sure that these persons concerned feel rather disturbed and resented by that letter and I do not blame them. It might be wise at times if we could imagine ourselves in other people's shoes and realize our reactions in such circumstances. May I at this time say thank-you to everyone who in anyway has contributed in helping Anguilla in these crucial times. Your work is much appreciated and I wish you God's blessings and continual (Continued on page 3).

THE WEAPONS IN ANGUILLA by Martin C. Roberts

The title of this article will no doubt stir up a variety of emotions in many people. I hope you will have the patience to read it through and that you will not be disappointed in the end. The central point of this article is of great importance to all reckon with on Anguilla is not guns concerned in finding a wise solution to the crisis in Anguilla whether it be the British Government, the goveerment of St. Kitts, other Caribbean governments or the United Nations This article is written out of an understanding of the people of Anguilla- an understanding which has been and will continue to be vindicated in this crisis

During 1967, Canon Carleton and I came to the conclusion that we should go to St. Kitts for talks with members of the government there about the crisis in Anguilla. I went ahead to St. Martin to contact the Deputy Premier and the Governor by cable, to find out whether we would be received, and whether we would be guaranteed safe conduct. Canon Carleton was to join me if all was well There was strong feeling in Anguilla that it would be unsafe for us to make the trip, and although we were quite prepared to risk it, we finally gave in to opinion on Anguilla. The Deputy Premier was quite displeased at my request for safe conduct and wanted explanation. I also learned later that His Excellency the Governor was disappointed that we had the government of St. Kitts? Not guns and ammunition and armed speed boats. I knew nothing about the extent to which Anguilla was armed. This is one of those secrets into which I was not initiated. I have a feeling that Cano Carleton knew almost as little as I did. We were therefore not qualified to discuss that subject. What then was our mission? In essence, we simply wanted to say to the government of St. Kitts that what they have to and ammunition but a far more powerful weapon, namely, the strong will and unbending determination of the people of Anguilla. They were up against sentiments formed, passed on from one generation to the next, and fortified in every generation. They were up against a will that could sometimes bend this way or that according to the wind, but a will that would not be broken. Canon Carleton and I hoped that if we could get this point across, it would lead to some modification of the approach to the crisis in Anguilla (The visit was not made but the (See WEAPONS Page 5)

EDITORIAL:

We have had many letters comment-ing on Mr. Webster's letter in last from people who do wish to identify themselves out of respect for Mr. Webster, but who are certainly not pleased with some of the statements he made. The Beacon takes a different view, and feels it should comment on anything it wants regardless of whom it may be. We do wish that Anguillans will come out and speak more freely on any matter they wish. One must remember that it was we stayed quiet for too long, why we got mixed up so deeply into affairs with St. Kitts. Had Anguillans opened their eyes years ago, our present situation might never have arrisen, because we would have been cut losse when Britain had the legal Machinery in her hands, instead of depending on a Commission now. Going back to Mr. Webster's article ( It goes to show that all is not well on the island. Apart from the defamatory way in which he spoke of the doctors who is supposed to have no Political affiliations, he has also turned he heat on, on H.M.G., for he now says to "keep your development and give us Political Freedom". We do feel that the Doctor and Dentist have been injustified, but maybe H.M.G. is rightly served, for they have been neglecting a certain section of people on the island and doing things to please the Webs ster's faction, regardless of how right it it.

Quietness in Anguilla may well be like a cancer eating away from the inside.

BRITAIN Vs. ANGUILLA. (By Ronald Webster.) (Continued) Reprinted from 'LIFE'.

While I considered Holcomb's projects untimely, there was nothing sinister about them. He wanted to build a basic materials factory to provide sand, gravel, concrete and Asphalt for the island's development This would facilitate the construction of hotels, for example. At the moment, Anguilla has more urgent needs

I'm afraid the Mafia would not find much of interest on Anguilla. There is no casino on the island, and there will never be one. Not in my ifetime. Anguillans are a religious d God-fearing people, and would be alled by it. As late as March 14, I sent a telegram to London asking that the British send a team of observers, along with representatives from the United Nations, to investigate the charges of Mafia infiltration. I never received an answer.

Meanwhile, we received Mr. Whitlock. During our October talks in London, Whitlock had mentioned he would be coming to the West Indies, and I had invited him to Anguilla, Now that he was coming, he sent me a message saying he would stop in Anguilla, if he was still welcome. I assured him he was. Tony Lee, who had been staying on St. Luwia island since January, returned to Anguilla late on Sunday, March 9. He told me that Whitlock would arrive Tuesday morning. Despite the Short notice. I made every arrangement for him - cars, hotel, police protection. Lee, meanwhile, was going from school to school and village to village telling people that Britain would now take over from St. Kitts for five years. Most Anguillans wer pleased with this news, at first. Lee told teachers to make placards welcoming Whitlock. He even gave out boxes full of little Union Jack for the children to wave at Whitlock's arrival,

When Whitlock arrived on Tuesday he ignored me. He brushed past me and went straight to Tony Lee. I insisted that I speak to him.
"Mr Whitlock, you are welcome to Anguilla," I said. He turned his back, asking Tony Lee where he should deliver his message. I suggested he go to the platform we had prepared. He bulldozed his way through the crowd and onto the platform, "Ladies and gentlemen," he began. (Continued on back page).

But the people were vexed, and wouldn't heed him. They had seen how he had treated their elected leaders. Whitlock kept trying, but he could not get beyond "Ladies and gentlemen".

Finally, I went to the platform to introduce Mr. Whitlock, "Despite the way he has treated me, he is welcome to see our white charming beaches and our miles of dusty roads" I said, Perhaps he would take a . better idea of our problems back to London if he looked around. When he spoke at last, Whitlock insisted he had not come to make or listen to speeches. He had come to give a message. Again, the people got mad. So Whitlock simply threw out handfuls of leaflets over the crowd. With that, the people demanded Whitlock must go. The plane must de part at once. I urged he be given a chance to stay, but the people insisted he go. Whitlock stayed for lunca, but the people would not have him on the island, and I could not account for his safety. After lunch he left Anguilla. A week later we were invaded. (To be Continued).

SPORTS NEWS (By Ralph Hodge)
H.M.Commissioner's X1 Versus Ronald Webster's X1.

Many people turned out to watch the match, a Commissioner's X1 versus a Konald Webster's X1 at the Park on Saturday last. The spectator included young ladies, mothers, and old were from all over the and old men from all over the island.

Visiting T. Teams covered various spots in the motoh. His lights of the match were, a well played 22 by the Commissioner Mr.Posnett who used a runner throughout his innings, an aggressive 6 not out by Webster and a jubilant spectator from the enthusiastic crowd rushing on the field to congratulate a player with a five dollar note, for a fine bowling spell.

The scores, Ronald Webster 104 for 6 declared, Commissioner's X1 69 for nine with one player absent, incidentally Webster's side won the match by 35 runs.

The match started about 40 mins late with Webster's winning the toss and batting. Albertus R'dson and Franklyn Woods opened the batting in a somewhat shaky manner, but added 29 before Woods was bowled off his pads by Carty for 13 A quick 16 by Banks took the score past 50, then two quick wickets fel but a nerve cracking, lucky partner ship of 40 between Albertus and Albertus who made 36 and Proctor 24, gave many chances and close calls, Anyway Webster who had the cameras on him from the time he left the stand until he arrived at the wich et, and Leslie R'dson took the score past the 100 mark, for their captain to declare his innings close

There were two heavy showers during the Commissioner's side innings and the wicket lifted awkwardly at times. Mr.Posnett 22 and Norrie Giles 9 delighted the crowd with some attacking cricket. Mr.Posnett said he would like to play another such match in the future.
